Terminology Standardization and Harmonization

TSH is a joint publication of the ISO/TC 37 Secretariat and Infoterm. Created in 1989, its objective is to foster communication and co-operation between organisations and individuals involved in terminology standardisation.

TSH provides information on terminology standardisation, especially within the framework of technical committees, and on new publications in this field. Since 2000, TSH is incorporated in TermNet News, the official journal of TermNet – the International Network for Terminology.

StandardTerm

STT provides up-to-date information on standardisation in the field of terminology, including standardised guidelines for elaborating terminologies. The aim of StandardTerm is to give this bibliographic information the widest possible dissemination, as national and international (ISO, IEC) terminology standards are high-quality tools for international communication and the transfer of scientific and technical knowledge. Since 1989, this periodical has been published jointly by Infoterm and the ISO/TC 37 Secretariat. Since 2000, TSH is incorporated in TermNet News, the official journal of TermNet – the International Network for Terminology.

BiblioTerm

BIT is aimed at informing its readership about the latest publications in the field of terminology. This bibliographic information comprises mono- and multilingual specialised vocabularies, terminology-related bibliographies, as well as directories of acronyms and abbreviations.

The various entries are planned to eventually be published in a cumulative international bibliography. Since 2000, BIT is incorporated in TermNet News, the official journal of TermNet – the International Network for Terminology.
